TO EVALUATE OUR PROGRAM.

High Ridge Farms is nestled in the lush green rolling hills in the Piedmont Region of North Carolina.

Since purchasing his first Simmental cows at two herd dispersals in 1988, Bruce Cuddy has evolved High Ridge Farms into to a powerhouse of Angus and Simmental genetics today.

With over 100 purebred cows, HRF runs an extensive ET program from their exclusive donor herd. Angus cattle are mainly Schaff Angus based, while Simmental originated from the Hook Farms and Kappes Simmental herds.

Our breeding philosophy is based on docility, phenotype, fertility, calf performance, and structural soundness.

In addition to the ET and AI programs, HRF maintains a small group of cleanup herd bulls selected from leading breeders across the US.
